IN MY LIFE

*There are places
I'll remember . . .*

*All my life,
though some have changed . . .*

Lending a hand for the senior car wash, Debbie Quiroz washes on.

Keeping busy at the senior car wash is Scott Thomet.

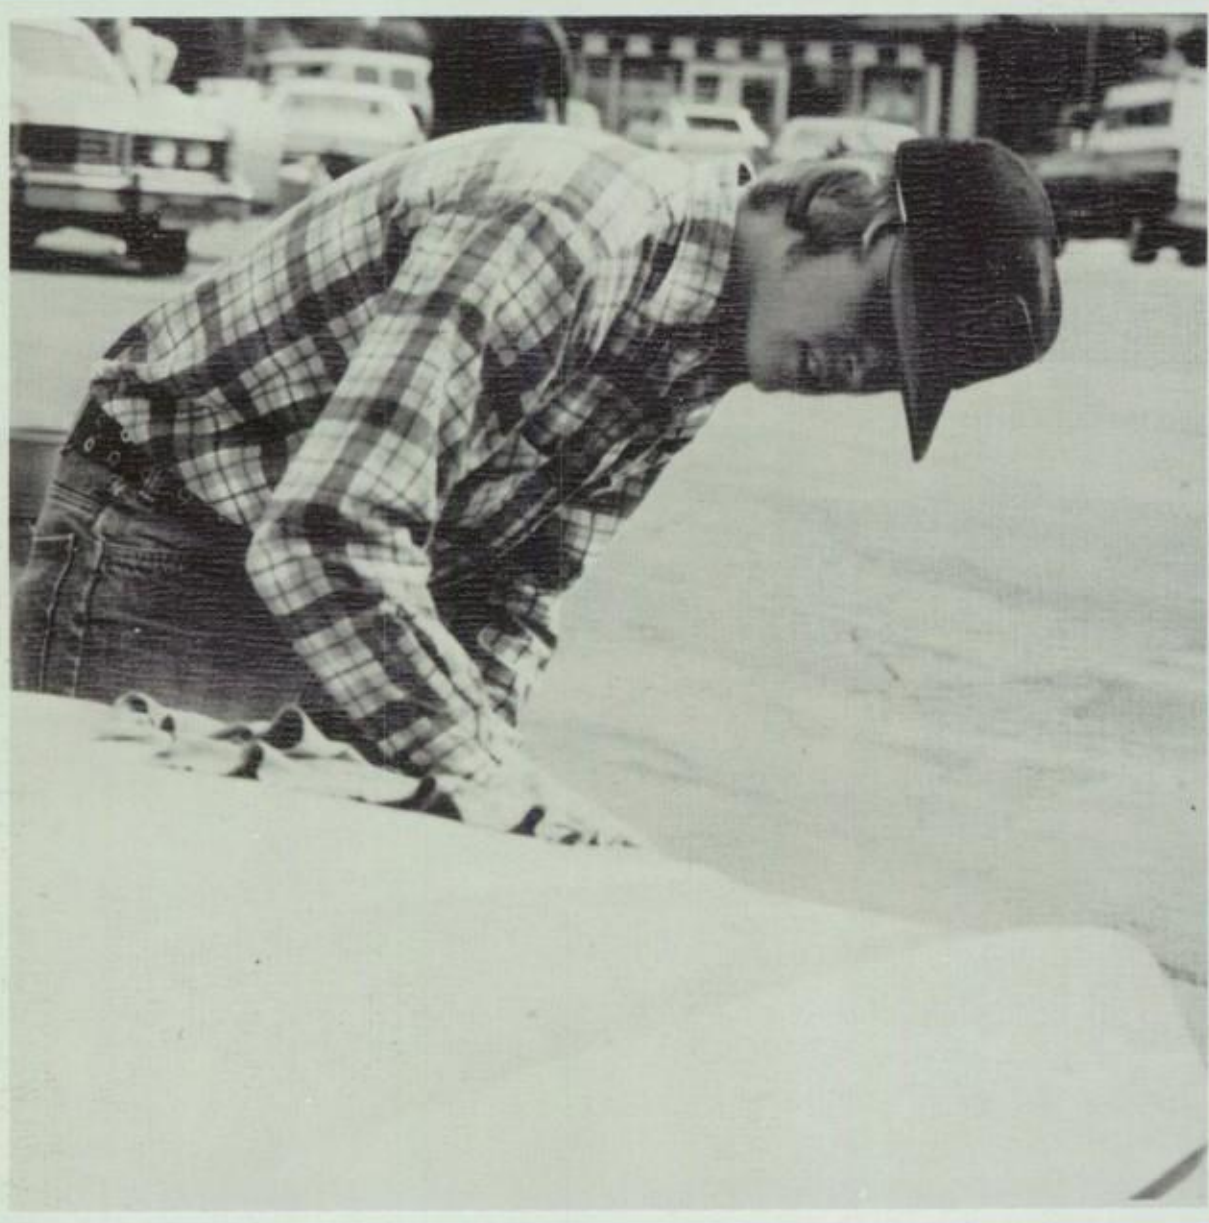

It's so clean I can see myself, thinks Kathy Vandervoort as she shines on.

Senior class treasurer, Lisa Phipps, counts the profits.

Showing their senior spirit, Barbara Corral and Molly Wolf tackle another car.

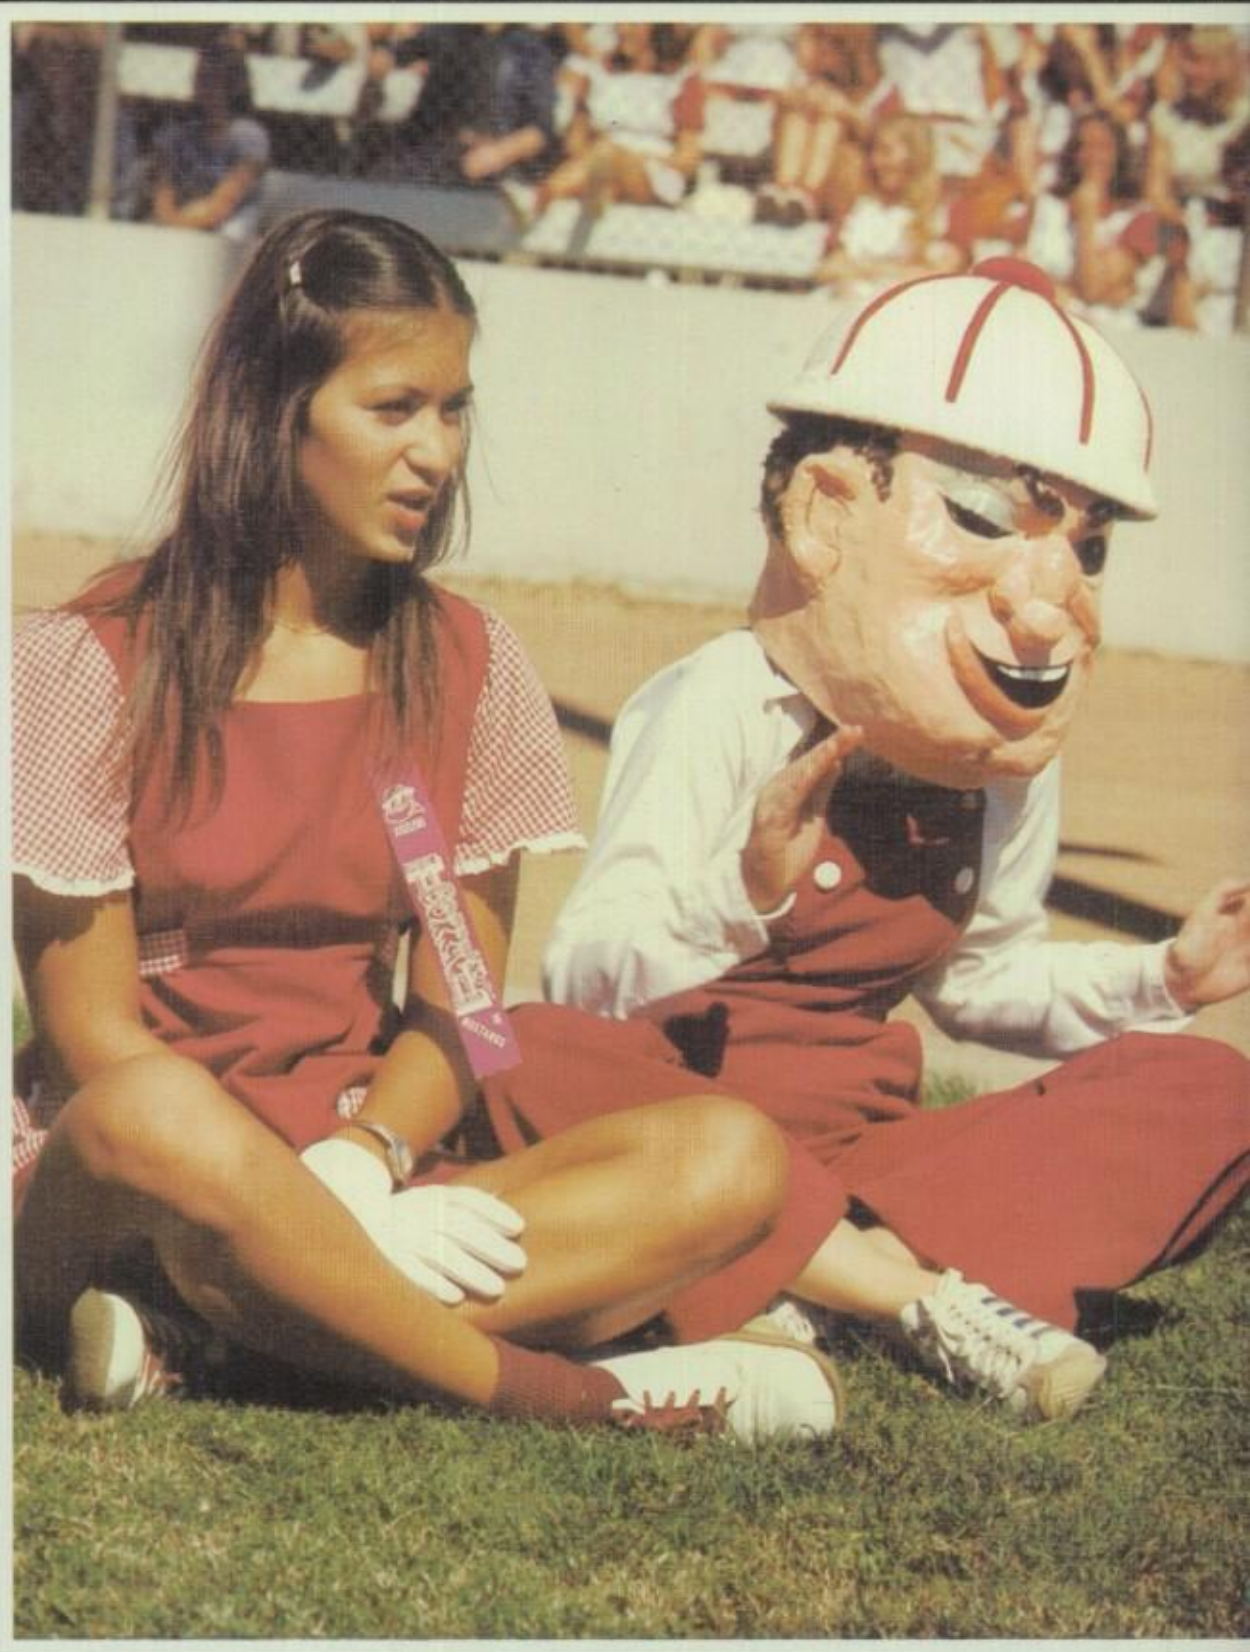

Tony Pearsall adds finishing touches as he dries a customer's car.

*Some forever

Fifties Flashback

Colored streamers accented the decor of the Fohi Cafeteria as memories were recollected at the Fohi Annual Fifties Dance. "Lonestar," our band received many compliments while playing both nostalgic and progressive rock. The music was so invigorating that many couples pulsated to the ecstatic rhythm.

During rest periods, lovers strolled over to Inspiration Point to get their pictures snapped. Fontana High School Drill Team sponsored the dance and served potato chips and coke, at no charge. Joe Cocker's hit song, "You Are So Beautiful," was the last song played, after which the students departed from the cafeteria, taking with them their souvenir dice.

The Fabulous Fifties Flashback was an enjoyable evening, however, we must realize that these are the seventies and the times have changed a great deal since the fifties.

Leimomi Jones, Yholddy Rodriguez, and Bill Jones enjoy the sound of the Fifties.

Helping out for the Drill Team, Vickie Renager and Barbara Moore serve free potato chips.

Showing their interest in dancing, students prepare for their pictures.

Dave Petersen, Wanda Jackson and Mr. Ewing discuss the happenings at Inspiration Point.

Vickie Knatcher concentrates hard on munching her chips.

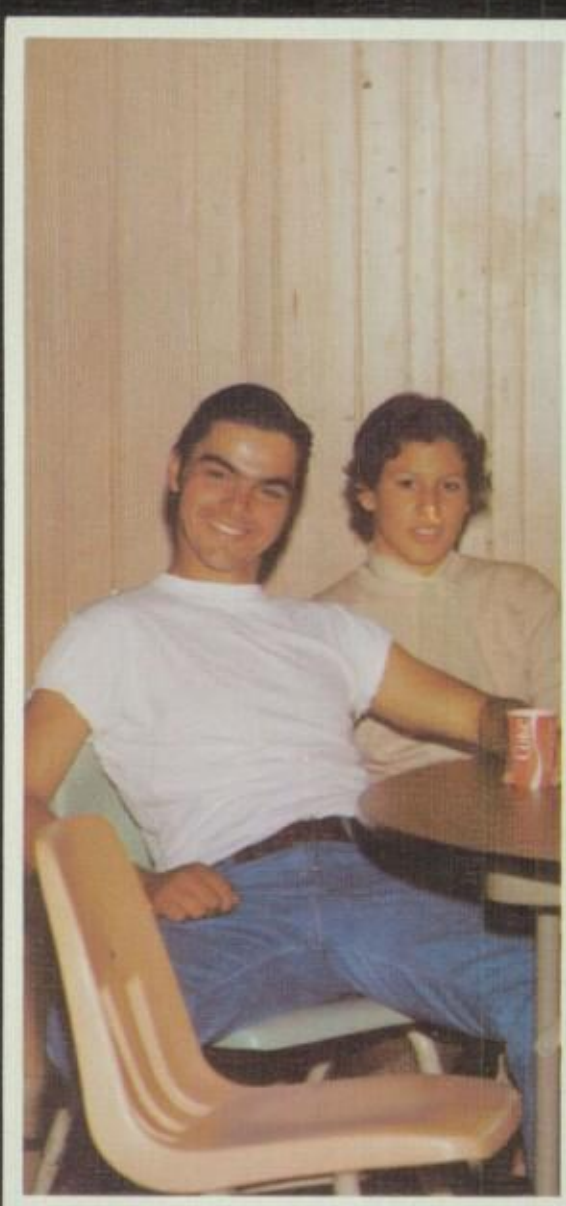

Lisa Loa and Liz Delatorre aid with refreshments.

Mr. Ewing poses Regina Hopfer and Mike Gibson in front of the scenic view of Inspiration Point.

Ken Deblasio and Sue Micheals relax in between dances.

Ted Fernandes and Joanne Valencia enjoy a coke while waiting for the next dance.

Eric Mueller samples the potato chips being served by Tina Lardieri and Barbara Moore.

Debbie Kinser and Gary Lamberth twist to the sounds of the fifties.

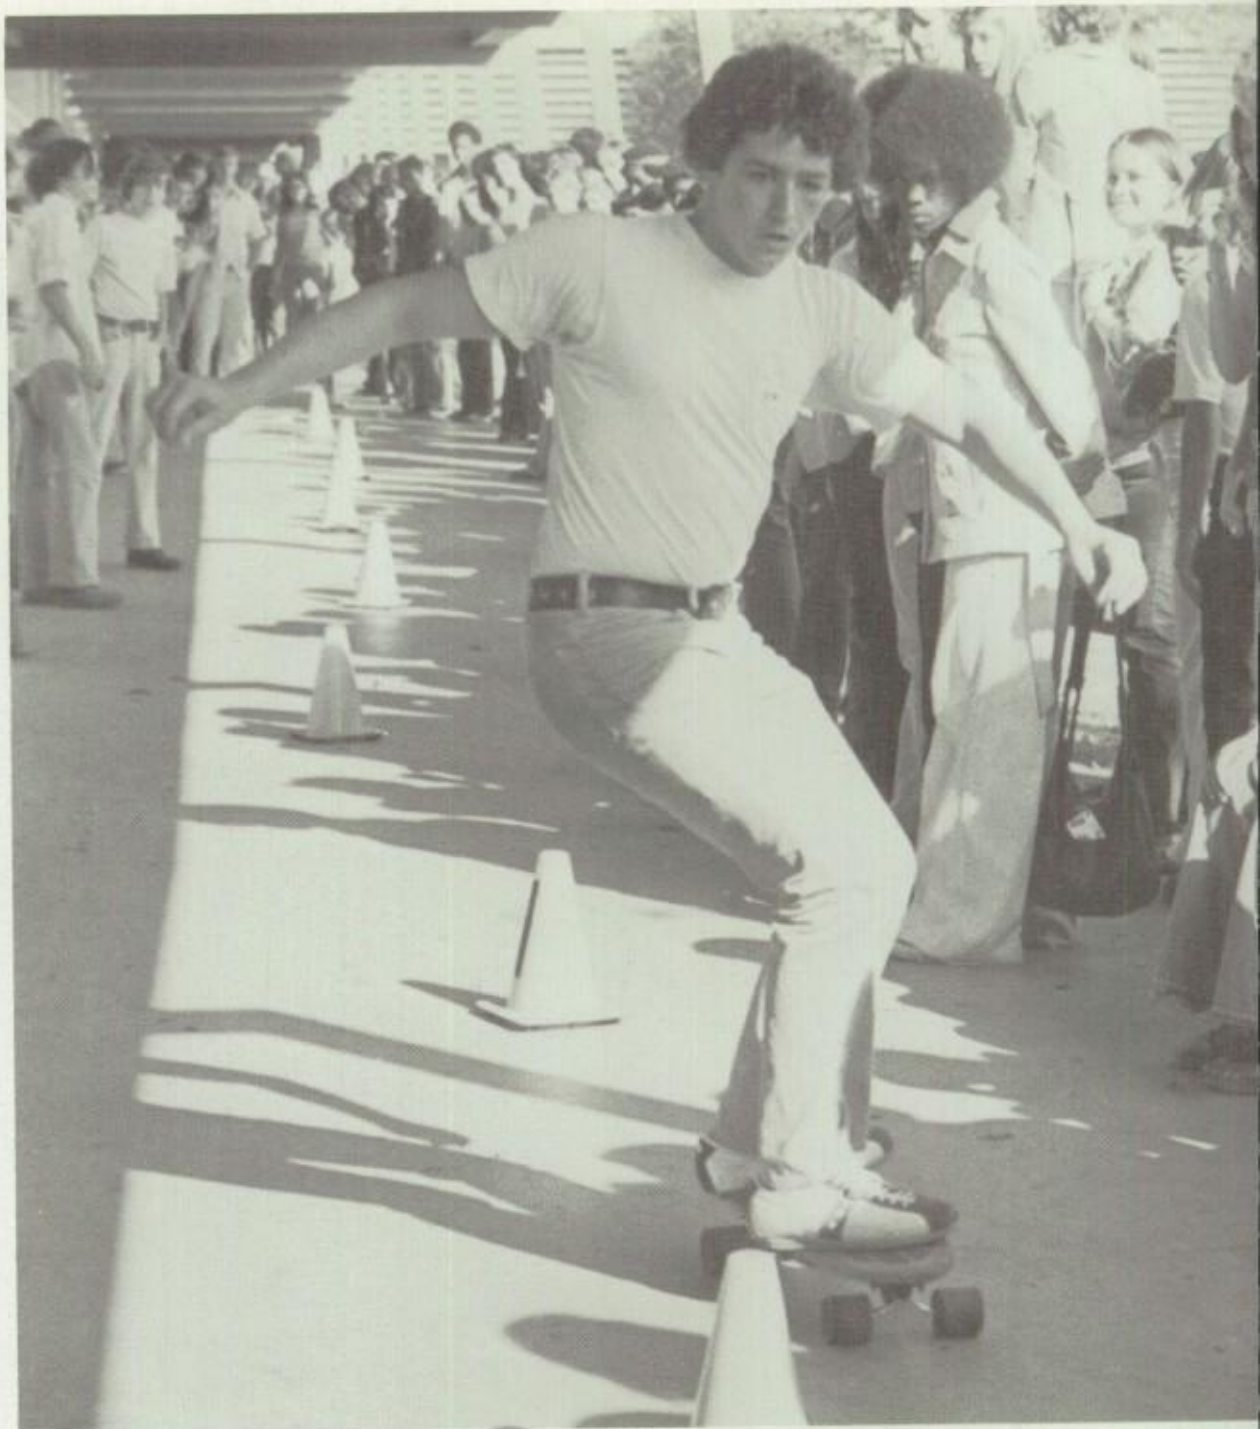

Laurie Wilson helps Angelo Rankin build the highest pyramid at the dance

Homecoming Week

November 8-12 was set aside for Homecoming Week activities. Some of the zany activities were: egg toss, marshmallow eating contest, the great skateboard race, and basketball free-throw contest.

To highlight this exciting week, Keith Hartline was announced as F.B.L.A.'s Tootsie Pop King, with Bob Evans as Foma King.

At Fontana's annual Homecoming Parade the kings cruised along Sierra in the midst of bands, drill teams, and floats. With Sierra Ave. cleared and Fohi's stadium packed, Fohi edged Chaffey 15-14 which helped complete the best Homecoming in Fohi's history.

Robert Hutchinson misses the cones with ease in the Skateboard Race.

A Fohi student demonstrates his skateboarding talents.

Mike Duesenberg, Roland Marshall, Blane Daniely, Mike Golackson, and Mike Ericson accept the Banana Award with pride.

Terri Capuchino is being stuffed with marshmallows for the Marshmallow Eating Contest.

Mark Hamilton scarfs down his banana during the Banana Eating Contest.

Homecoming Parade

The Annual Homecoming parade was led by our Grand Marshal, Mari Bakas. She was followed by Fontana's City Councilmen. Fohi's Band and Drill Team marched down Sierra Ave. in front of the sweepstakes award winning Sophomore Class float which had the theme "The Wonderful World of Mother Goose." "The Wonderful World of Music" was the theme for the Junior Class float. The Senior Class, which built the Royal Court float, took 1st place in the class float category.

The Science Club's "Wonderful World of Mountain Climbing," U.S.E.'s "Wonderful World of the Mexican-American," and FBLA's, "Wonderful World of Children," followed. The Bicentennial float concluded the 1976 Homecoming Parade.

Juniors sing and play to express the Wonderful World of Music.

The Science Club proudly displays their float.

Queen Pam Zoller and her escort Dennis Johnston.

Homecoming Dance

Homecoming may well have been called the victory dance of the year. The Fontana Steelers edged the Tigers of Chaffey with a suspenseful 15-14 win which let Fohi go to the CIF playoffs. This triumph helped cater to the romantic event held at the Raincross Square of Riverside.

Crystal Ship kept the evening alive with their stimulating music. Dinner included Baron of Beef, scalloped potatoes, buttered string beans dressed with almonds, onions, and bacon bits, and a hot dinner roll. A crisp green salad was served as an appetizer, and ice-cream parfait as dessert.

Danny Thomas appeared as a guest speaker. The theme for the dance was "Dream On." Clouds were scattered across a blue sky which made a stunning background for pictures.

Brad Crandall and Janice Oppelt help themselves to the ice-cream parfait.

Mary Wilkerson and Bill Brayton counting the stars.

Jerry Montijo and Tracy Michelle listening happily to the music.

Curtis Aaron and Marcia Chavez gazing at the dance floor.

Dell Cannady and Kim Burnich happily getting their pictures taken.

Couples enjoying the closeness of the soft sounds of the 70's.

Mr. Cappiello thanks Danny Thomas for making an appearance at the Homecoming Dance.

Pot Sale

The Fontana High School annual ceramics sale proves to be a big success. The sale, held December 10, is well known in our community for its high quality and good bargains in pottery. Many people who bought at the sale were returning customers from years past. The sale grossed $1,500.

The pot sale was held from 8:00 am to 3:30 pm with wheel demonstrations by Dave Cutrona, Willie Matheny, Emidio Mazzulli, and Scott Holland and sculpture demonstrations by Don Jefferys and Mike Siracuse. Mr. Don Eitleman's Stage Band played for the enjoyment of the crowd as they browsed through the displays with ideas for Christmas presents in mind. Items featured were pottery, crafts, and metalwork. The pot sale was run totally by the students for the students.

Students politely receive their money for their work.

Willie Matheny giving demonstration on how pots are made.

John Hendrix and Jackie Barabaraosa wrapping up their creations.

Mike Siracuse shows Tami Howell how he does a sculpture demonstration.

Kathy Newberry waits while people look over her work.

Outsiders enjoy the pot sale also.

Robert Acuna and Eileen Valdepena discuss bids with Mrs. Denler.

Debbie Quiroz and Paul Garcia keep an eye on the dance floor while waiting in the picture line.

Flapper's Fling

December 11, 1976 was the beginning of a captivating evening for four hundred and eighty Fontana High School students. The F.O.M.A. Club sponsored the annual Flapper's Fling held in the cafeteria. The theme was roaring twenties.

Arriving at 8:00 on this memorable Saturday Night were couples dressed in satin, fringe, feathers, garters, vests, and hats.

Fohi students express a special fondness for the Flapper's Fling as Brenda Cinque, F.O.M.A. president was perplexed with the ticket shortage. Yes, this dance sold out for the second consecutive time.

A multitude of popular songs were performed by a band called Flax. Couples were actually filling the dance floor before the band started playing.

Pictures were taken outside in the cool breeze. An authentic 1928 Model A Ford was borrowed from Ed Keith to use as a background for pictures.

Party favors consisted of playing cards, feathers and poker chips. Colors were done in yellow and black.

Roxanne Olguin and Jimmy Castellanos enjoy quiet conversation.

Erin Clifton and Tony Pearsall enjoy the mood of the 20's.

Orman Cupp and Linda Sonsteng sitting comfortably.

Mark Hamilton admires Laura Abernathy's dancing techniques.

Pam Watts swings her fringe while watching Dan Kerr's funky movements.

Bonnie Davis, Ed Anderson, Toni Boswell, Vallice Fowler, Gary Lindsay and Dorothy Overstreet happily share a table.

Shelly Shores and Ron Remail are posing at Ed Keith's car.

Dana Remail and Scott Jesse decide which picture packet to get while Claire Christley and Gabe Sandoval pay for their pictures.

Vicki Knatcher smiles as Craig Dickinson shows the victory sign because of the football teams' victory over Fountain Valley the night before.

Fohi at the Big "A"

Each player of the '76 football team knew the ultimate goal was to win the C.I.F. championship. The goal was set and only hard work could accomplish this goal. For the next 10 months the players had to dedicate themselves to a conditioning program and practice until their bodies were exhausted. Only the upcoming games kept them going.

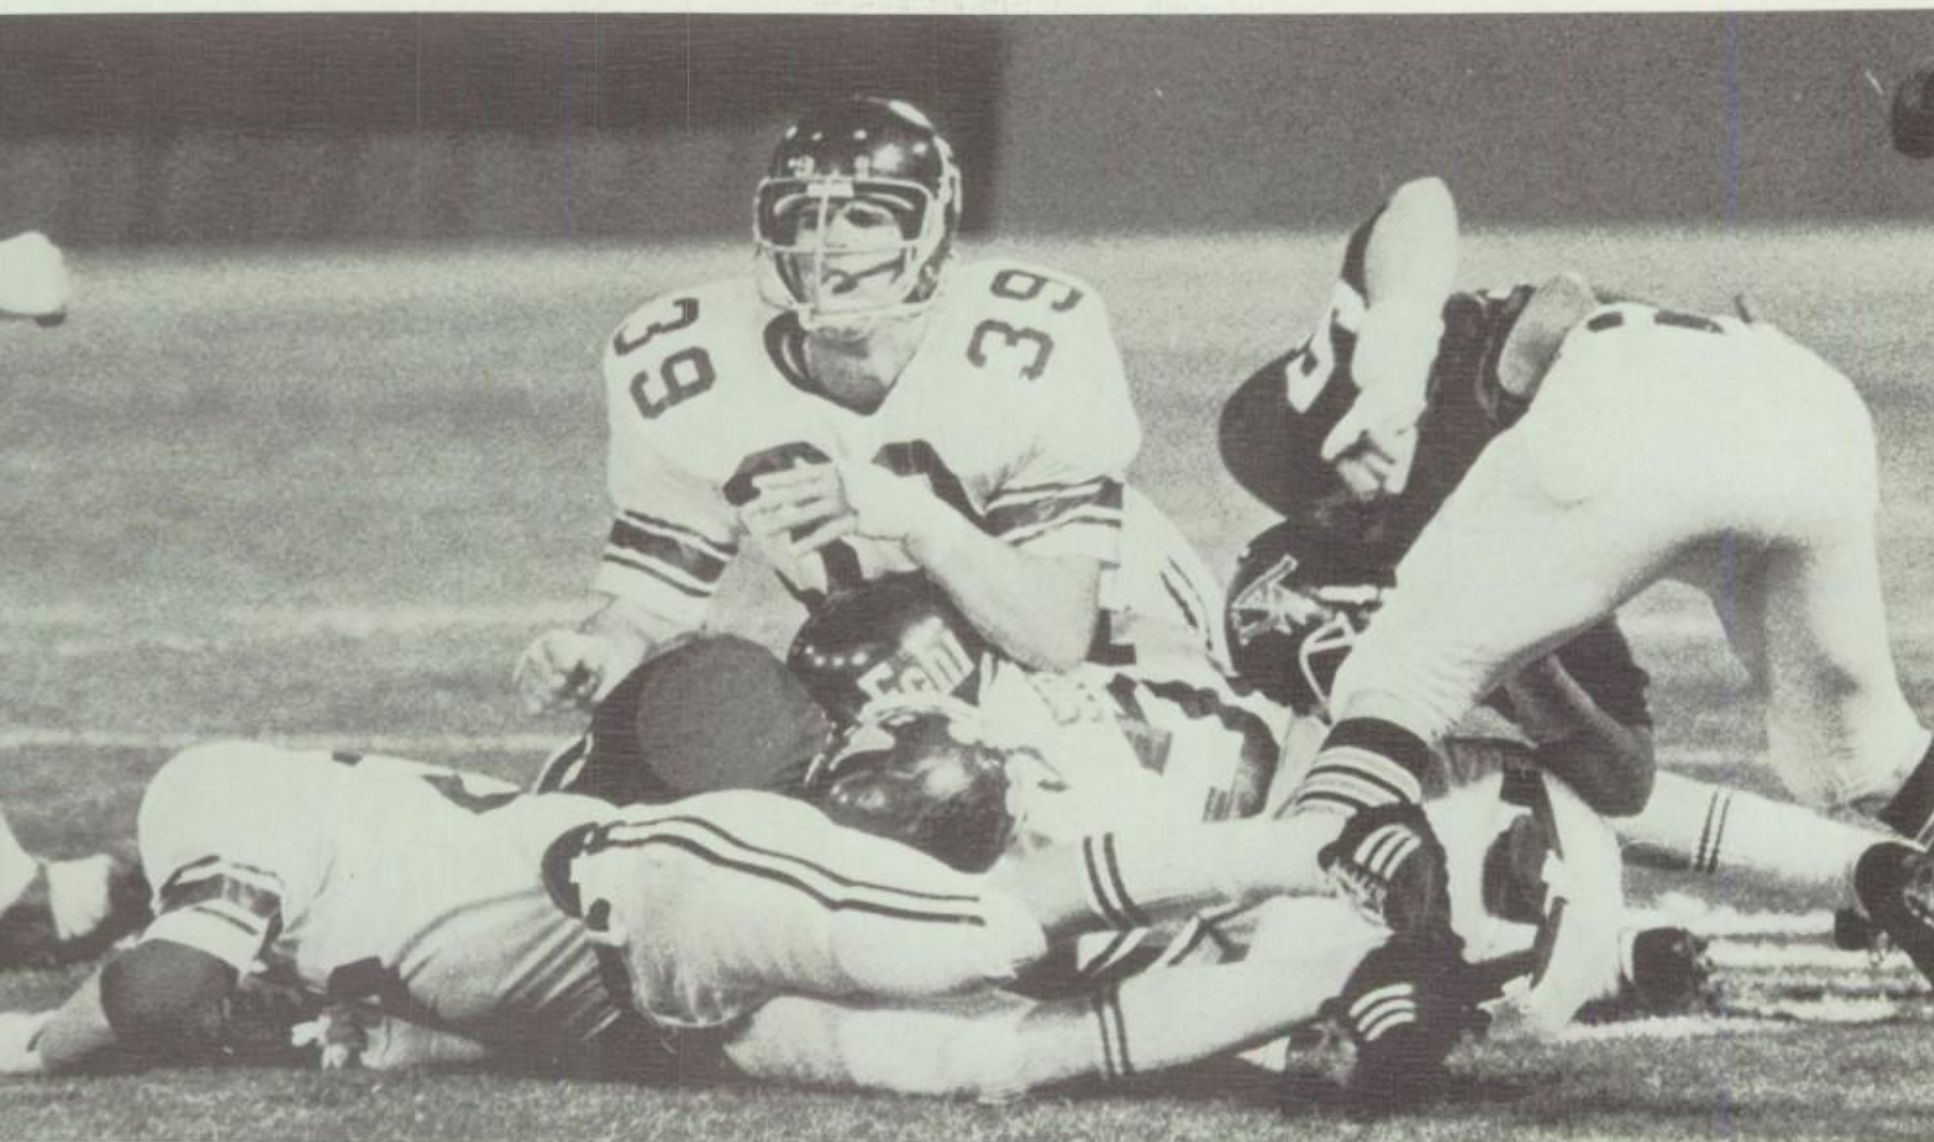

Finally, after 10 months of hard work, the season starts. The '76 team starts the season with a 34-6 victory over Verbum Dei. The next week the tables turn as Fohi went down to defeat against West Covina. Then Fohi came back with a decisive victory over Jefferson 56-24. The see-saw struck with a loss to Muir 30-0. With a 2 and 2 record Fohi went into CBL action.

Fans really show their love for the Steelers.

Curtis Aaron pounces on the Los Altos players.

Mike Fox sweeps around the end to gain some extra yardage.

Fontana beat Redlands for the second year in a row and went on to defeat Pacific 27-8. Tragedy struck as Fohi lost 13-0 to Eisenhower. It looked as if the CBL Championship was gone, but the team would not give up. They exploded past San Geronimo 46-6 and went on to conquer Chaffey 15-14, to win a playoff berth.

In the playoffs, it's win or you're out and Fohi beat El Rancho 38-14, South Hills 20-6, Fountain Valley 14-10, in the last 22 seconds, and then Westminster 14-7.

The final game, the C.I.F. Championship played at Anaheim Stadium against Los Altos. The tables turned again and the Steelers couldn't get going and saw a dream go down in a 28-0 defeat.

This was quite an accomplishment for a team that wasn't expected to enter the playoffs.

Although the players and coaches did not reach the ultimate goal, they set many new records and did what no other Fontana team had ever come close to, and most of all brought respect to Fontana and Fontana High School.

SWEETHEARTS

The jump that started the Homecoming game against Eisenhower.

Drill Team forming their traditional heart for entrance of the sweetheart's court.

The 1977 Winter Sports Homecoming Dance was held at the Griswold's Pavilion in Claremont. Sponsored by the A.S.B., the theme for the annual Sweetheart Dance was Valentines Day.

Centerpieces were comprised of red and white hearts displaying a red-hot cupid and were accented by pink and red streamers which splendidly enhanced the theme.

Reigning over this delightful atmosphere, was our Homecoming Queen, Sue Hogan. She was flanked by her Senior Princesses, Rochenda Garcia and Kim Crees. Adding to the beauty of the court, was Kim Burnich, Junior Princess and Vicki Pompura, Sophomore Princess.

The evening never lost its funky rhythm with the rock-in-roll sounds of Sky High our band for the evening.

Fiddler on the Roof

This year's operetta, "Fiddler On The Roof," was shown in two memorable performances, proving to be one of the best musical productions in Fohi's history. The story was a depiction of the life of Jewish peasants, the realization of lifetime traditions and their struggles with the Czar and his men.

The play dealt with a small village of peasants, Anatevka, and one family in particular, the family of Tevye. Tevye is the father of five daughters, which proved to be quite a problem. In those days, the parents selected the husbands for the girls, with the help of a matchmaker. Tevye's selection did not approve with that of his daughters. In the end, he gave his daughters their wish, and let them marry whom they pleased.

At the beginning of the play, the eldest daughter, Tzeitel is of age to marry. The only way to marry is to go by the matchmaker, named Yente.

According to Yente, Tzeitel and Lazar Wolfe should be married. Tevye, against his better judgement agrees to the match.

When Tzeitel is told about the engagement, she breaks out in tears and begs her father to let her marry the man she loves, Motel. Tevye, at first, refuses, but finally gives his consent for the marriage. Motel and Tzeitel are married with a traditional Jewish wedding.

Two months later, the troubles are spreading through Russia. Perchik goes to join the revolutionaries and asks Hodel to marry him. Tevye, once more cannot resist his daughters pleading and gives his blessings.

Anatevka is soon caught in the political upswing. An edict decrees that Jewish families must leave their land. Although Tevye's third daughter, Chava has married a Russian, he must also leave Anatevka. As they put together their few belongings, the villagers mourn for the little place and sadly they leave, to start new lives in Poland, America, and the Holy Land.

Victor Rogo performs the wedding service for Leeta Warren and Jody Chastain.

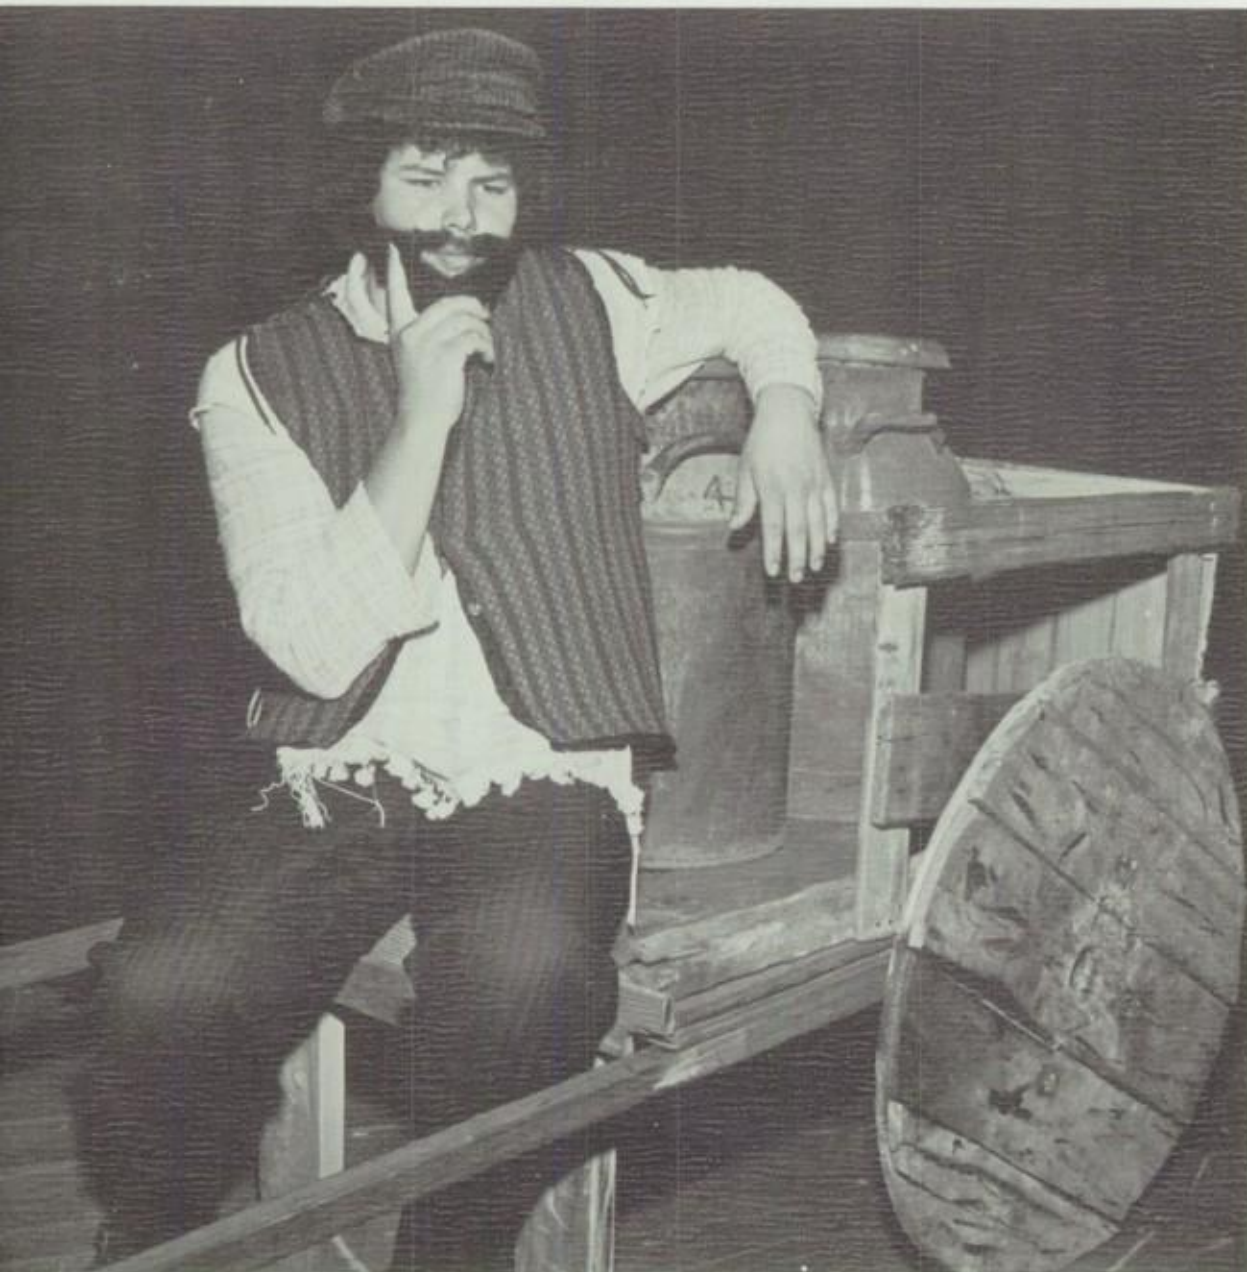

Eric Mueller and Melanie Mercado discuss the marriage of their second daughter.

Leeta Warren gives Vicki Knatcher advice about men.

Mark Jacson, Jody Chastain, Leeta Warren, and Melanie Mercado quietly listen to Rabbi Victor Rogo.

Junior-Senior Prom

The theme "Moonlight and Roses" set the mood for the 1977 Junior-Senior Prom. Couples entered the Monte Carlo Room at the Newporter Inn ready for a romantic evening of dinner and dancing. Milk white vases with paper roses were the centerpieces which decorated all the tables.

After a dinner of Chicken Mascot in white wine sauce, baked sugar cured ham, beef stroganoff and assorted salads, couples danced in the moonlight to the sounds of Mizzouri Foxx, a great band from the Los Angeles area. They played selections from Boston, Kiss, Aerosmith, Peter Frampton, and their own originals.

Everyone's eyes were on Jim Dufour as he announced the court and told a few corny jokes to keep the suspense going. The highlight of the evening was the crowning of the 1977 Prom Queen, Sharon Wright and her court Sylvia Baca, Sue Hogan, Rochenda Garcia and Kim Crees.

Sharon Wright has just been announced the 1977 Prom Queen.

Women's Tennis Team 1976

This year's Girls' Tennis Team was marked with much improvement, ending the season with a tie for 5th place with Eisenhower, but this does not paint the true picture to a very successful season. The Chaffey match was the highlight of the season as the girls performed to the best of their abilities. The heartbreak of the season was the one point lost to first place Pacific. JoAnn Mitchell played first singles and Margie Branch and Karen Sinclair were first doubles.

Sherry Lacy smashes the ball to her opponent.

Karen Sinclair prepares to return a serve.

Paul Lemos crossing the finish line.

Assistant Coach Lemos and Pat McGinty tally up the final score.

Cross Country Team

Jurupa Hills had another season of Steeler footprints placed there by a group of Fohi students who are able to run where most people can not even walk. Coached by Gary Pickett and Vic Lemos, many young men found out about agony hill.

Walter Ladd keeps an even pace.

Rick Bethany giving his all.

Girls' Volleyball Team

The 1976 Girls Volleyball team coached under Miss Elliott, put together their best season ever. For the first time in Fohi's history the girls volleyball team went to the CIF playoffs. They ended their league season with an outstanding record of 7 wins and 3 losses, placing them 2nd in the Citrus Belt League. Excellent performances were noted in games against Chaffey, giving Chaffey their only league loss, and in the last game of the season against San Geronimo Fohi pulled through with a win which enabled them to go to the C.I.F. playoffs.

Nina Plotner forces an opponent's spike to go out of bounds.

Varsity Basketball

A young Steeler Varsity Basketball team coached under Terry O'Keefe began their practice season with many hours of conditioning. Such practices included: Up and down court running, dribbling, lay-up and jumpshot drills. Much time was also stressed on passing and ball handling. The team, realizing that they had their work cut out for them also worked hard to improve their defense.

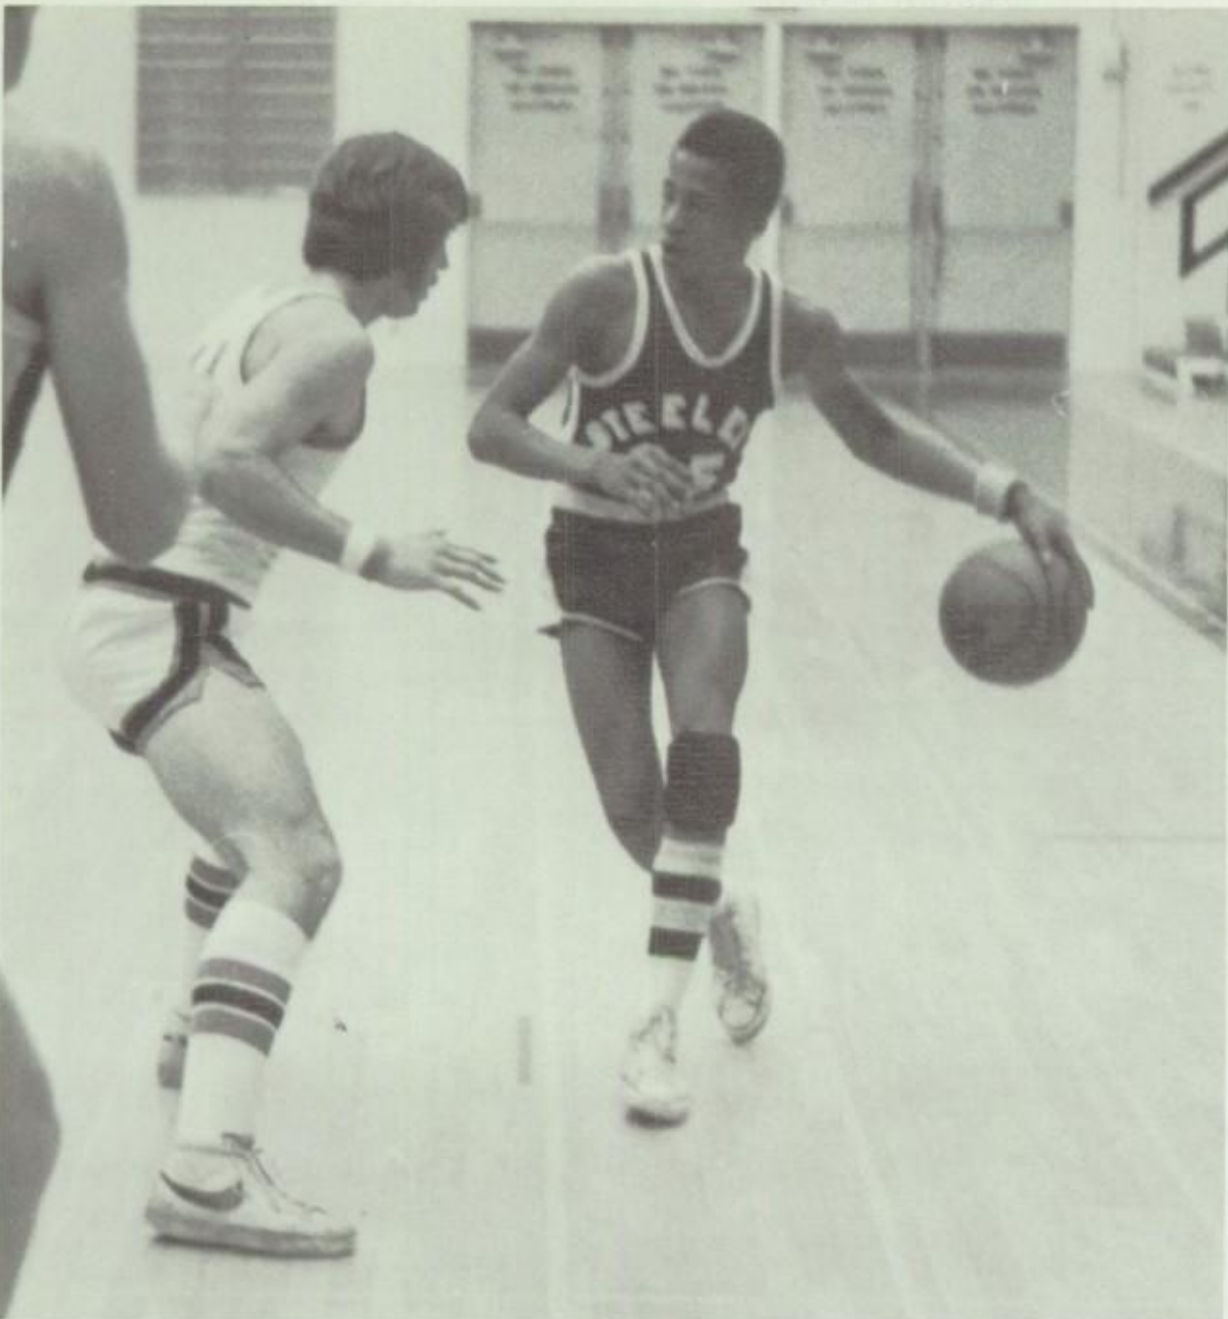

Errol James receives a pass from Mike Goetz under the basket.

A Redlands' forward restrains Valice Fowler and Don Wilson from taking the rebound.

Mike Goetz takes a second effort shot off the rebound.

Tyrone Streeter keeps a close eye on his Terror defender.

Our Class of Nineteen-Hundred Seventy Seven

Nineteen-Hundred Seventy Seven is upon us. It is the year we have waited for all our lives, the year when all our hopes and dreams for the future begin to come true. Even though we look forward to the future we can not help but to reflect on our memories of the past. These past years have been very special to us, each holding memories of many happy times. These years have been a time to grow, to learn, to share ourselves with newly-made friends, and to experience every aspect of life. What the future may hold we can only guess, but it is certain that our high school days will always be treasured and close to our hearts.

F.O.H.I. Administrators and Faculty

As a student at Fohi, I was wondering what the administrators and faculty really think of their jobs. This started me on a project to try and find out, so I went around to various teachers and administrators and asked for their opinions. Mr. Cappiello, the Principal of Fohi "Enjoys working with young people." He "enjoys working with new and old teachers." In all he "enjoys being a leader." Dr. Higginbotham, one of the Vice-Principals at Fohi said, "Being a Vice-Principal is personally enjoyable in Fontana, because the students are more out going than in any other district he has worked in." He also stated, "The unsureness of what will happen next makes it interesting." Mr. Armstrong, a counselor, says his job is "Challenging." He likes "the opportunity to help kids and watch them progress." Mr. Prather, a teacher "loves Business Education and F.B.L.A." He also likes "seeing first hand positive results of classroom work." Barbara Smith, a secretary, says she "loves her job," and that "It is very enjoyable and interesting."

I also asked every faculty member and administrator, where they were born, the highest degree they ever obtained, the last college they attended, and the classes they teach.

Inter Club Council is an organization which joins all clubs on campus and acts as the body of leadership for these clubs. I.C.C. is the strongest club on campus. Because of its capacity of leaders, many people can be informed of events which may occur in the future.

President Jim Dufour
Secretary Tammy Cochrun
Treasurer Brenda Cinque

Club presidents become bored with the humor of President Jim Dufour.

Pep Club waits anxiously for rally to begin.

Pep Club Shows Spirit!

This year's Pep Club showed spirit at the rallies and games of all varsity football and basketball games. Under the direction of Mrs. Marva Wiegmann, the pep club kept their school pride to its highest, as well as boosting that of others.

Orchestra

The Instrumental Music Club is a club on campus made up of members of the Orchestra, Stage Band, Pep Band, and Concert Band.

Under the direction of Mr. Don Eitelman, the orchestra plays a whole spectrum of music from baroque to contemporary. They spend many long months working with the drama and vocal departments on the operetta. They also have an annual concert in May. Pictured to the left: Front row: Linda Fowlkes, JoAnn Mitchell, Liz Thompson, Dan Andresen, Second row: Cindy May, Regina Hopfor, Ylonanda Sandoval, Jane Martin, Joe Urbank, Third row: Bill Brewington, Patty McGinty, Michelle Kowalski, Don Blasick, Sandy Hartman, Debbie Forsberg, Alan Willis, Fourth row: Val Layvas, Patty Blume, Melanie Wiles, Holly Morrison, Sandy Riddick, Erin Clifton, Tony Pearsall, Craig Elliott, Back row: Neil Merriyman, Richard Reinschmidt.

Choir

This year's A Cappella Choir performed at the annual Christmas and Spring concerts. They performed several songs of interest to the student body and faculty. Members of the choir are selected by Mrs. Joslin and the choir board.

The New Beginnings

A new club on campus kicked their year off by performing at the Christmas concert. The New Beginnings are the newest member of the FOHI Music Department. They combined singing and dancing to achieve a type of entertainment that no other club on campus has.

Vicki Knatcher, Pam Gall, and Jeanie Button concentrate on memorizing their music.

The choir, getting it all together.

Barbara Bayless studies her music with interest.

Jean Maciejewski and Steve Henderson singing out in clear tones.

Dexter Wash adds a bit of tenor to the sound.

Concert Girls

"Concert Girls' Glee is one vocal group that is prospering in the Fine Arts Department at Fontana High School," Mrs. Joslin, head of the vocal department.

The girls are separated into two sections: alto and soprano. Like Concert Men's Glee, these girls are also headed for barbershop style singing which is not found in many of our high schools today.

Concert Girls' Glee are clad in powder blue dresses during singing performances. When combined with Concert Men's, they not only blend musically, but in color.

Concert Men's

Concert Men's is one of the fastest growing vocal in our musical department. The men must audition to become a part of the group. If proven successful, interested glee members may join choir with a recommendation from the director, Mrs. Lorraine Joslin.

The group gave an exclusive performance as they participated in our Annual Christmas Concert here at FOHI. One can really appreciate their unique way of harmonizing aided by long hours of preparation for their concerts. After school workshops help the men to perfect their vocalizing according to sections; first tenor, second tenor, baritone, and bass.

Madrigal Singers

The Madrigal Singers are a highly selective group, organized by Mrs. Lorraine Joslin. The types of songs they sing are from the Renaissance period to the Pop sounds of today. The singers perform as a group or may choose to perform as soloists or duets. On campus they are not just another club, off campus they are not just high school singers but they have a reputation as being one of the best performing groups in the Inland Empire.

President Melanie Mercado
 Vice President Richard Reinschmidt
 Secretary Jeanne Button
 Treasurer Jody Chastain

Madrigals start each day with a ten minute warm-up.

"This Could Be the Start of Something Big" is the name of the song that was appropriately chosen by director Mr. Don Eitelman to get the Steeler Band off to a marching start. Their long hours of practice during fourth, fifth periods, and Tuesday nights, seemed well worth it when their six halftime shows were received with great applause by the stands. What would the spirit in the stands be like without the sounds of the band? After football season, the band goes indoors and works on concert music. They also work on parade marching to the march, "French National Defite," led by drum majors Darla Baron and Matt Mancha.

. . . FOHI DRILL TEAM . . .

With the CRASH of a clip board, the blow of a whistle, and the sound of marching feet, the Fohi Drill Team began another hectic year. The Drill Team kept busy first semester with six home shows, three away games, homecoming parade, the Ontario Speedway, and the Christmas parade. Second semester, the pace kept right on going with basketball shows, competition clinics, and two or three parades. Besides the class, the Drill Team Club has fund raisers such as the summer school snack bar, football cushions, a car wash, and sponsoring the fifties dance.

VARSITY PEP SQUAD

This year's Varsity Pep Squad, led by Head Cheerleader Rochenda Garcia, and Head Songleader Debbie Masters, helped to promote spirit at games and rallies. They practiced many long hours this summer to perfect their cheers. They also attended a cheerleading camp along with the J.V. and Sophomore cheerleaders, at California Polytechnic State College in Pomona.

Yearbook Class

The 1976-77 Yearbook Staff consists of 22 dedicated students. Each student has his or her own job to do, and each one tried to do their best. Under the supervision of Mr. James Dunn, we were able to meet deadlines and any day-to-day confusion. With all this in mind, we hope that all students of Fontana High School enjoy this yearbook as much as we did putting it together.

C.S.F.

C.S.F. (California Scholastic Federation) membership is obtained by high academic grades and good citizenship. The purpose of the Federation is to reward the students for these accomplishments. To be a life member, one must be in C.S.F. four of the six semesters of high school, one of the semesters must be in the senior year.

N.F.L.

N.F.L. (National Forensic League) is made up of the speech and debating teams. They participate in local, county, state, and national competition. It gives the members a chance to use their talents in speech to win awards.

Officers are:

President Lori Nelson
Vice President Tony Rose
Advisor Mr. Butcher

S.O.U.L.

The motto of S.O.U.L. is Student Organization of Unity and Liberty. The purpose of S.O.U.L. is to make the members more aware of their culture. They celebrate Martin Luther King Week and sponsor a fashion show during Black Awareness Week.

Advisor Mr. Van Blankenstein

Machine Shop

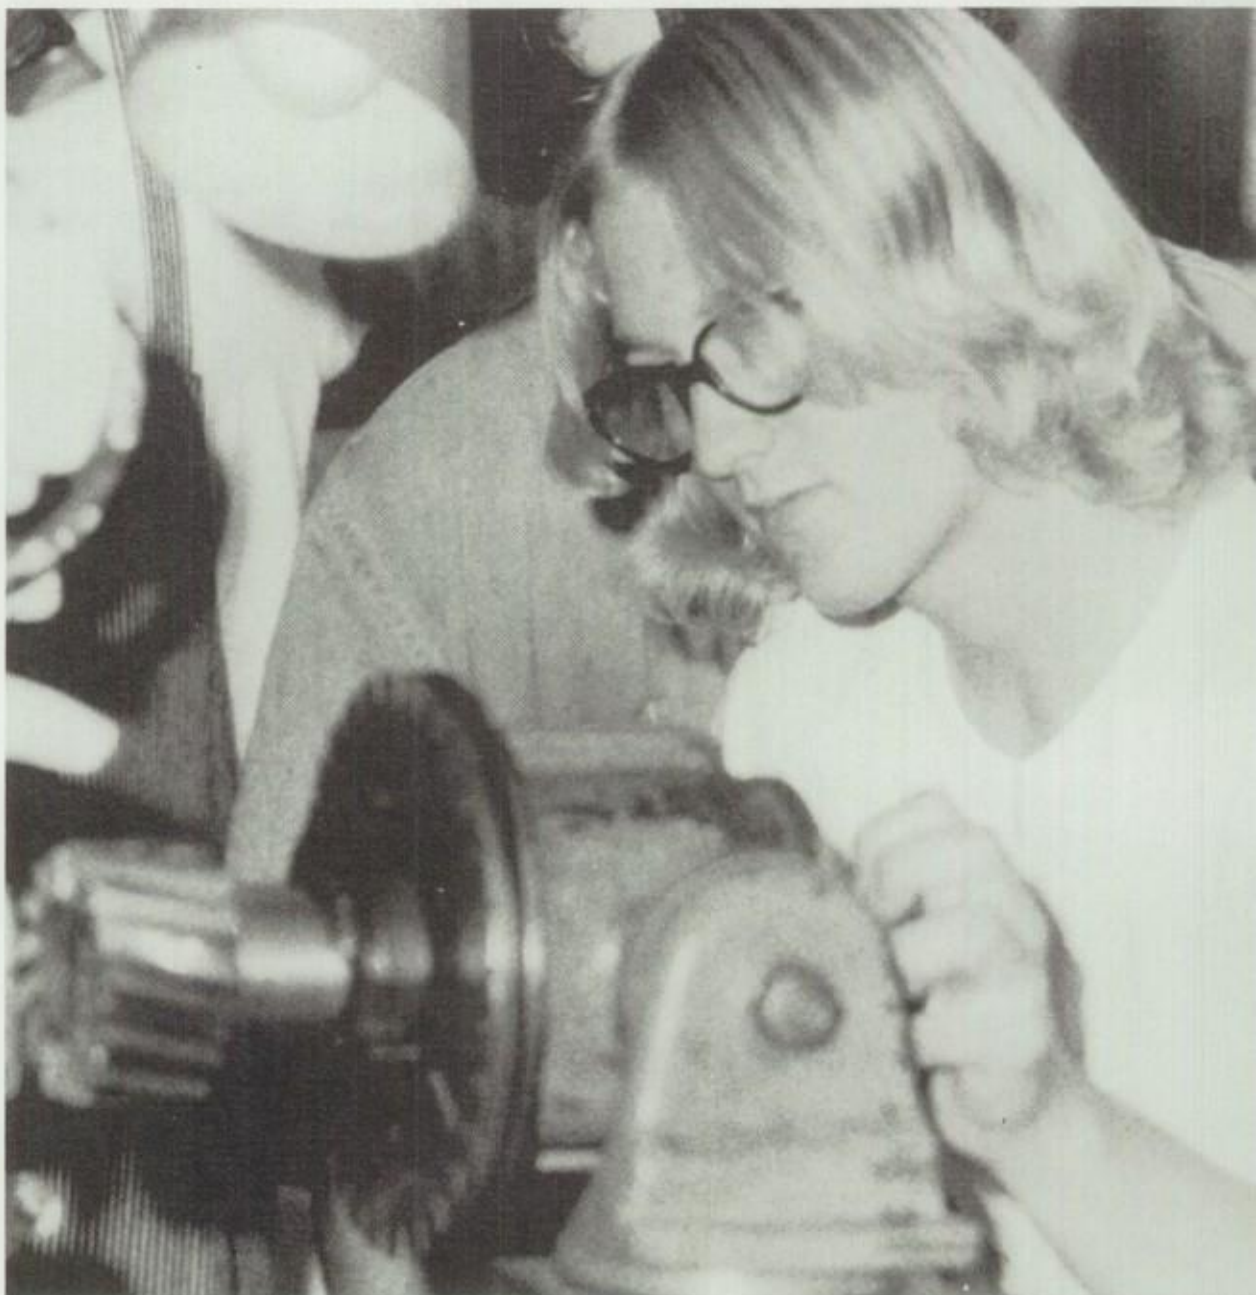

Machine Shop gives you a skill that you can use after you graduate. The course is a three year class. As a sophomore you have to take it for three periods a day. The next two years you must take it for four periods a day which gives you enough time to do assorted jobs for the school district and projects assigned by the teacher. Many projects are made like steam engines and nuts and bolts. A lot of the students in the class are involved in a club designed for people in a vocational class which is the V.I.C.A. club.

Bill McIntosh making fine adjustments on his steam engine.

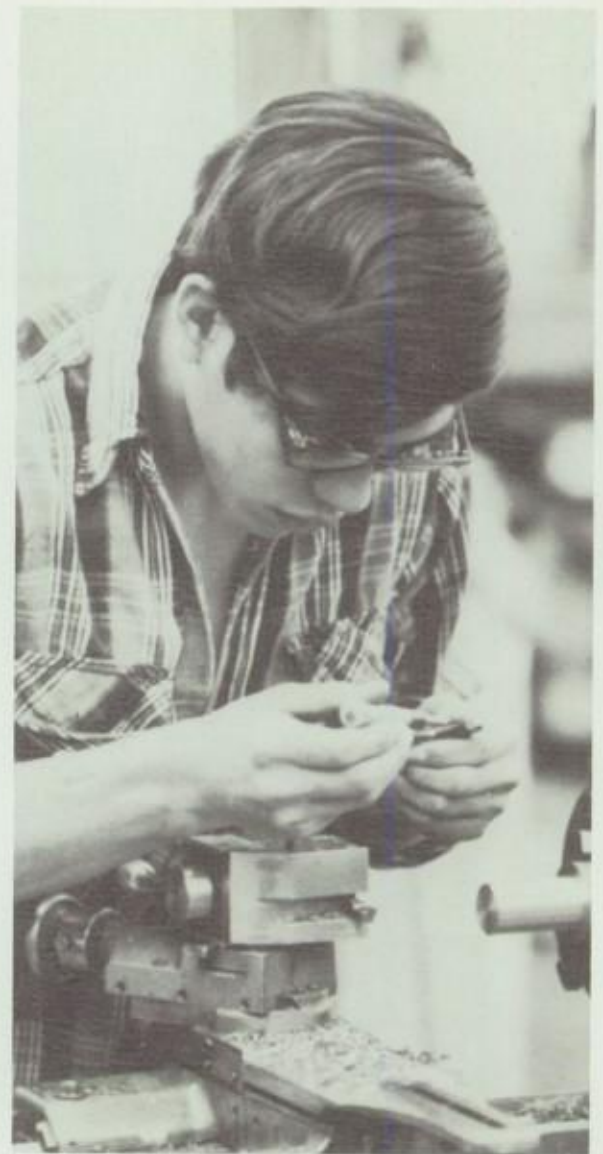

Bill Popp studies his project.

Black Well sharpens a cutter on a grinder.

Allan Eichner adjusting the tool holder on the lathe.

Mike George drills his project on the lathe.

Mike Lewis makes last minute adjustments on the mill.

Vocational Education

Vocational Education is a step toward the future. The students of today are the builders of tomorrow's future. We look at the students of today for the answers of the future. The work of Vocational Education is to provide the workers of tomorrow through education.

Dave Tyler working on the wood lathe.

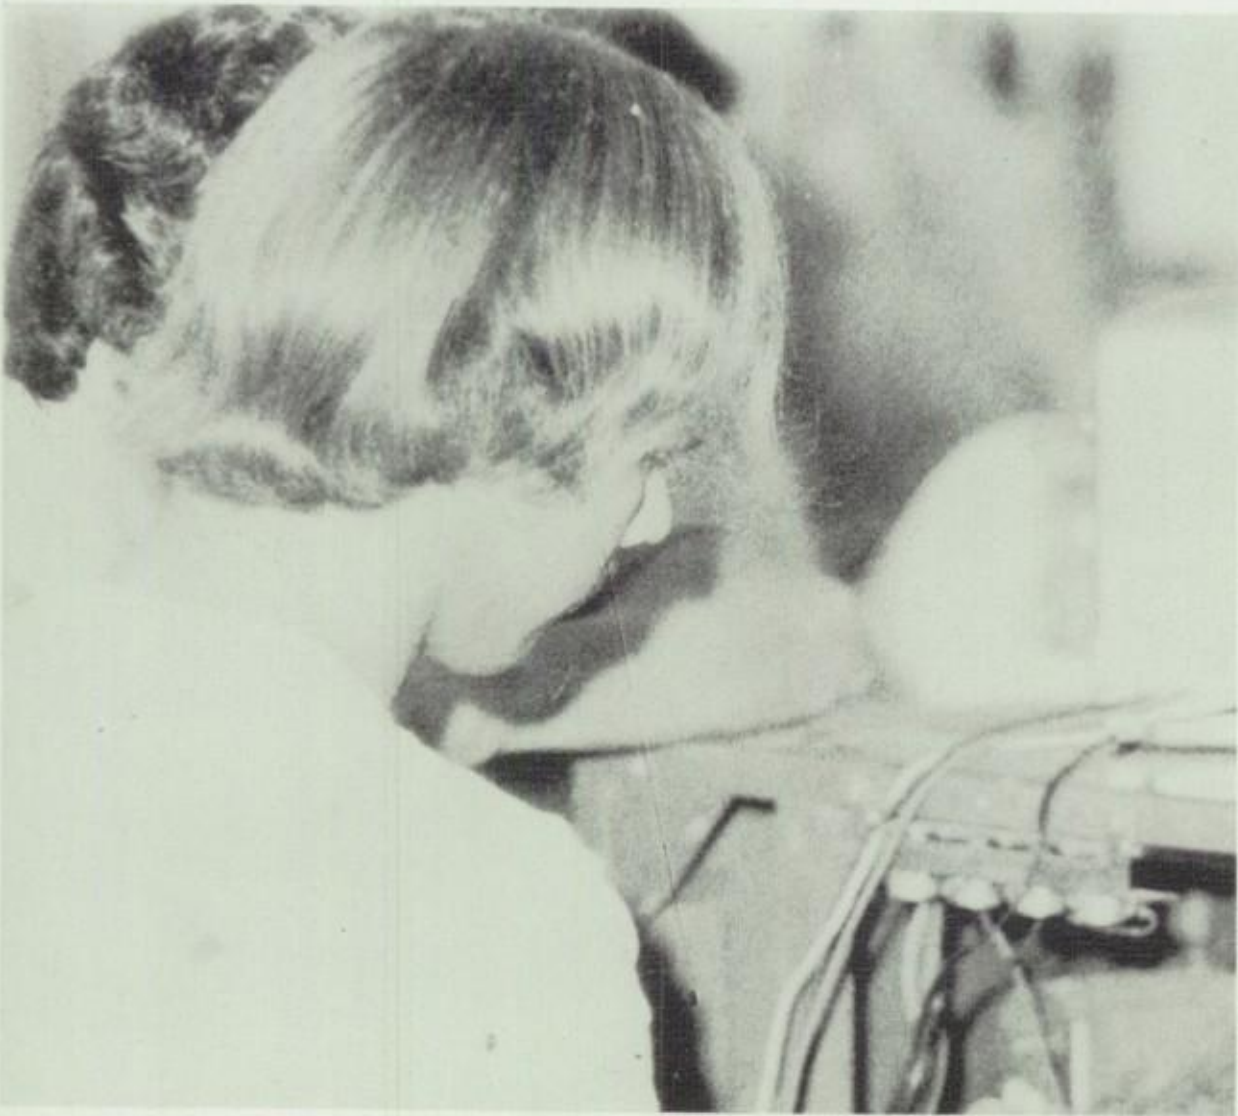

Mike Kozic studies a transistor.

Ray Joye looking amazed at his machine.

Students in wood shop working on projects.

Electronics student checks out T.V. set.

Fred Chavez put his project together.

Bob Sajda repairs a record player.

John Dahl tapes out a circuit board.

Gary Karr studies a capacitor.

Fred Chavez is testing a transistor.

Electronics Shop

Ron Read and Mario Rodriguez in beginning electronics.

Lary Reding and Bob Sajda repairing a radio.

Mike Beckham checks the tool panel before work.

Electronics Shop gives the student a skill that they can use in seeking a job. Some plan to go to college to further their education and become electricians. Others just take it for a self help elective. Students who have taken this course receive a good knowledge of how electricity works. They put small things together like light organs and strobes. If they continue for advanced electronics they learn how to repair T.V.s and radios. It's a class with direct application.

F.F.A.

The purpose of the Future Farmers of America Club and the Agriculture Department at Fohi is to teach the student how to care for and raise animals, crops, and the use and repair of farm equipment. The student and the future agricultural world will benefit from this club (F.F.A.) and the people of Fontana can look with pride to the fine Agriculture department at Fohi.

Dave Matheny working in the field during class.

Andy Bledsoe preparing the ground for planting.

Bruce Cash just finishing his planting area.

Richard Noble taking care of his plants.

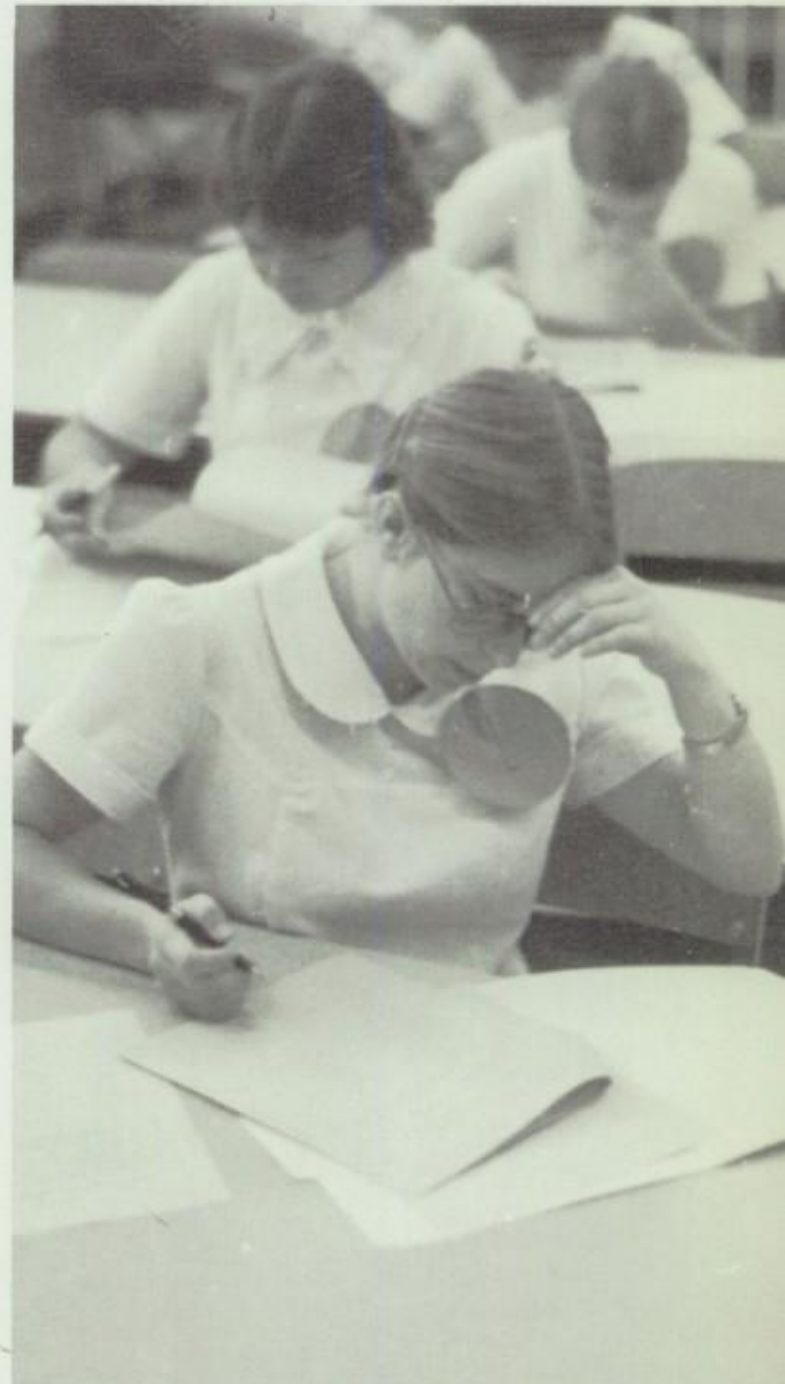

Janice Oppelt taking a test for Nurses Aide.

Nurses Aide

Nurses Aide is designed for a very special type of person. A Nurses Aide student must want to help others above all else. These dedicated students receive special training so they can give better care to those they help. Many hours of on the job training help the students work with people. On the job training, films, lectures, demonstration and working on fellow students gives these students the skills needed to perform as a Nurses Aide. During the course the student will learn many hospital tests and first aid.

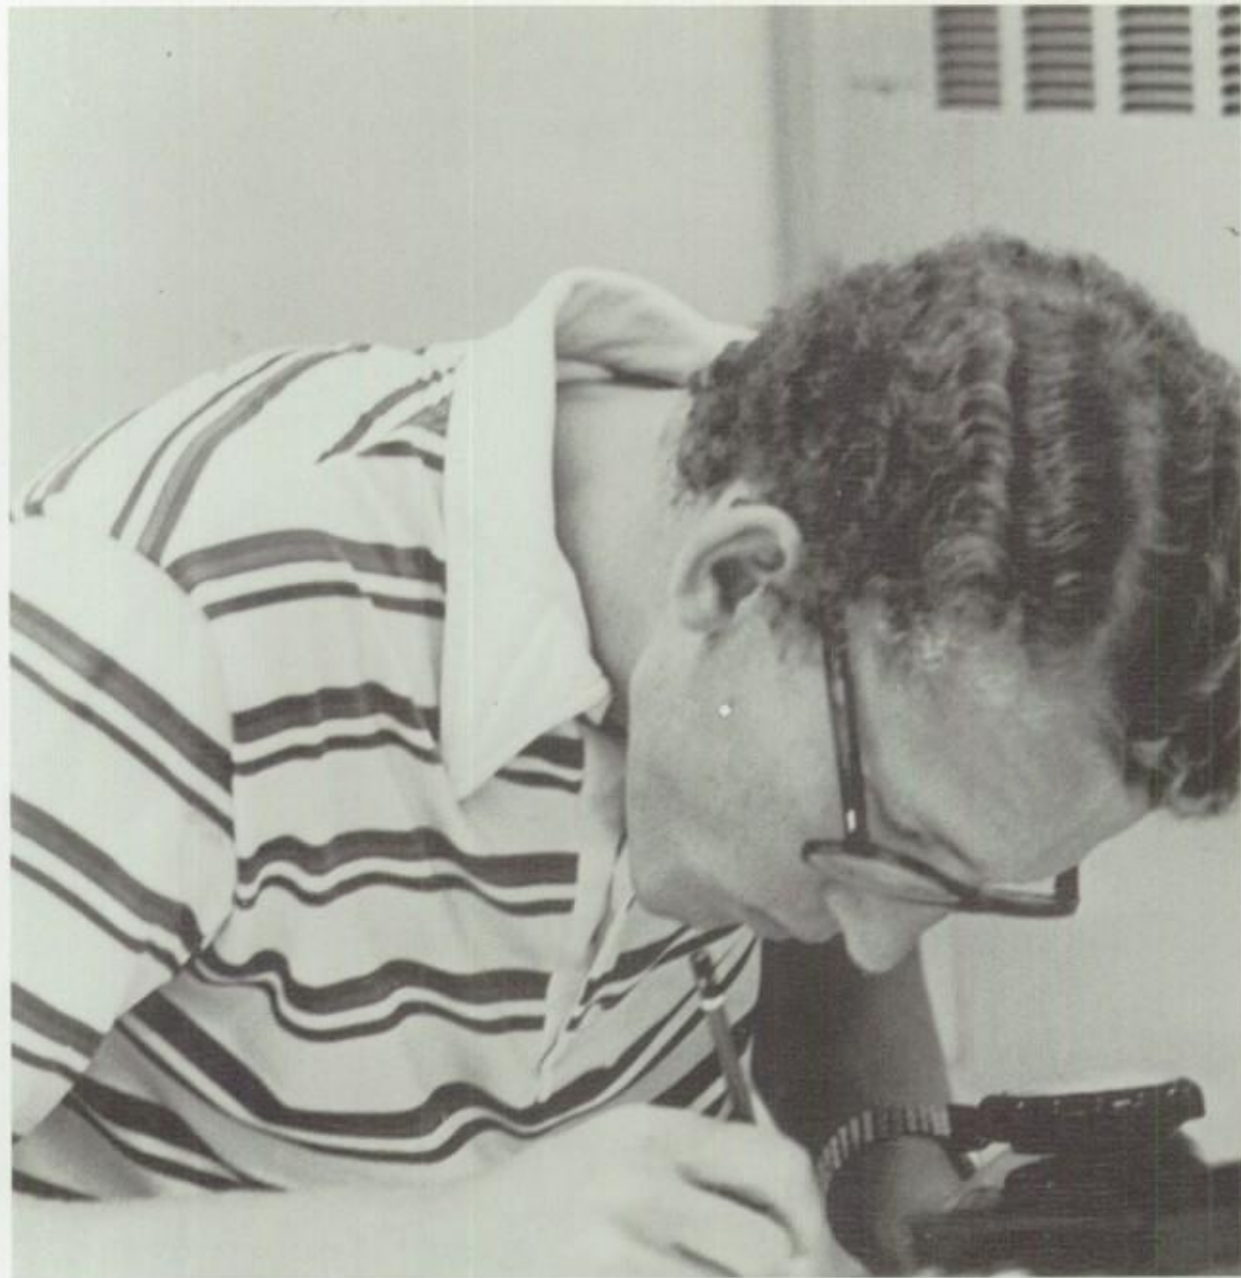

Rachel Soto goes over her notes.

Karen Beringer working hard to pass her test.

Drafting

The purpose of drafting is to teach the students the skills they will need to go into the field of Architectural Drafting. The course is divided into Engineering and Architecture Drafting. In Engineering drafting the student is taught how to make workable drawings of machines, machine parts and a wide variety of other industrial products. The Architecture drafting part of this course exposes the student to housing design and he completes drawings of one and two story residences, apartments and small commercial buildings.

Eric Longfield working in drafting on his drawing.

Larry Reed works hard to get his drawing finished on time.

David Banning asks a friend about a drafting project.

Terry Smith looks over Fred Fix project in metal shop.

Metal Shop

The purpose of metal shop is to teach the students the fundamentals of metal work. Mr. Vrem teaches gas and arc welding, sand casting, forging, and sheet metal work. He assigns students various projects to involve them in the different skill areas. Mr. Vrem's metal shop is helping the students whose special interest is metal work and gives them the knowledge of metal working to take up as a hobby or a profession.

Welding on his fruit bowl is Fred Fix.

We the Yearbook Class of 1977 would like to take this opportunity to say Thank You to our advisor, Jim Dunn.

At various times throughout the year, Jim returned copy to us, sometimes at a maximum of 6 times. He yelled at us about our deadlines and especially got on our cases when we were misplacing things. Jim was not exactly happy when we left old yearbooks and our layouts all over Mrs. Timilione's room, (sorry Mrs. Timilione!) and went to brunch. When we ran out of triplicate forms, lost data markers, and cropping pencils, we all thought that was the end of the world. There were good times in class although at the present we are unable to think of any. In view of everything, we just want to say Thank You Mr. Dunn.

To the Senior Class, good luck after graduation. But especially to the Yearbook Class of 1978, remember our class motto: "DON'T MESS AROUND WITH JIM!"

Here is the beautiful, snow-covered San Bernardino mountain range that lies north of the Fohi campus.

Seeing this site fired up the Fohi football team to victory.

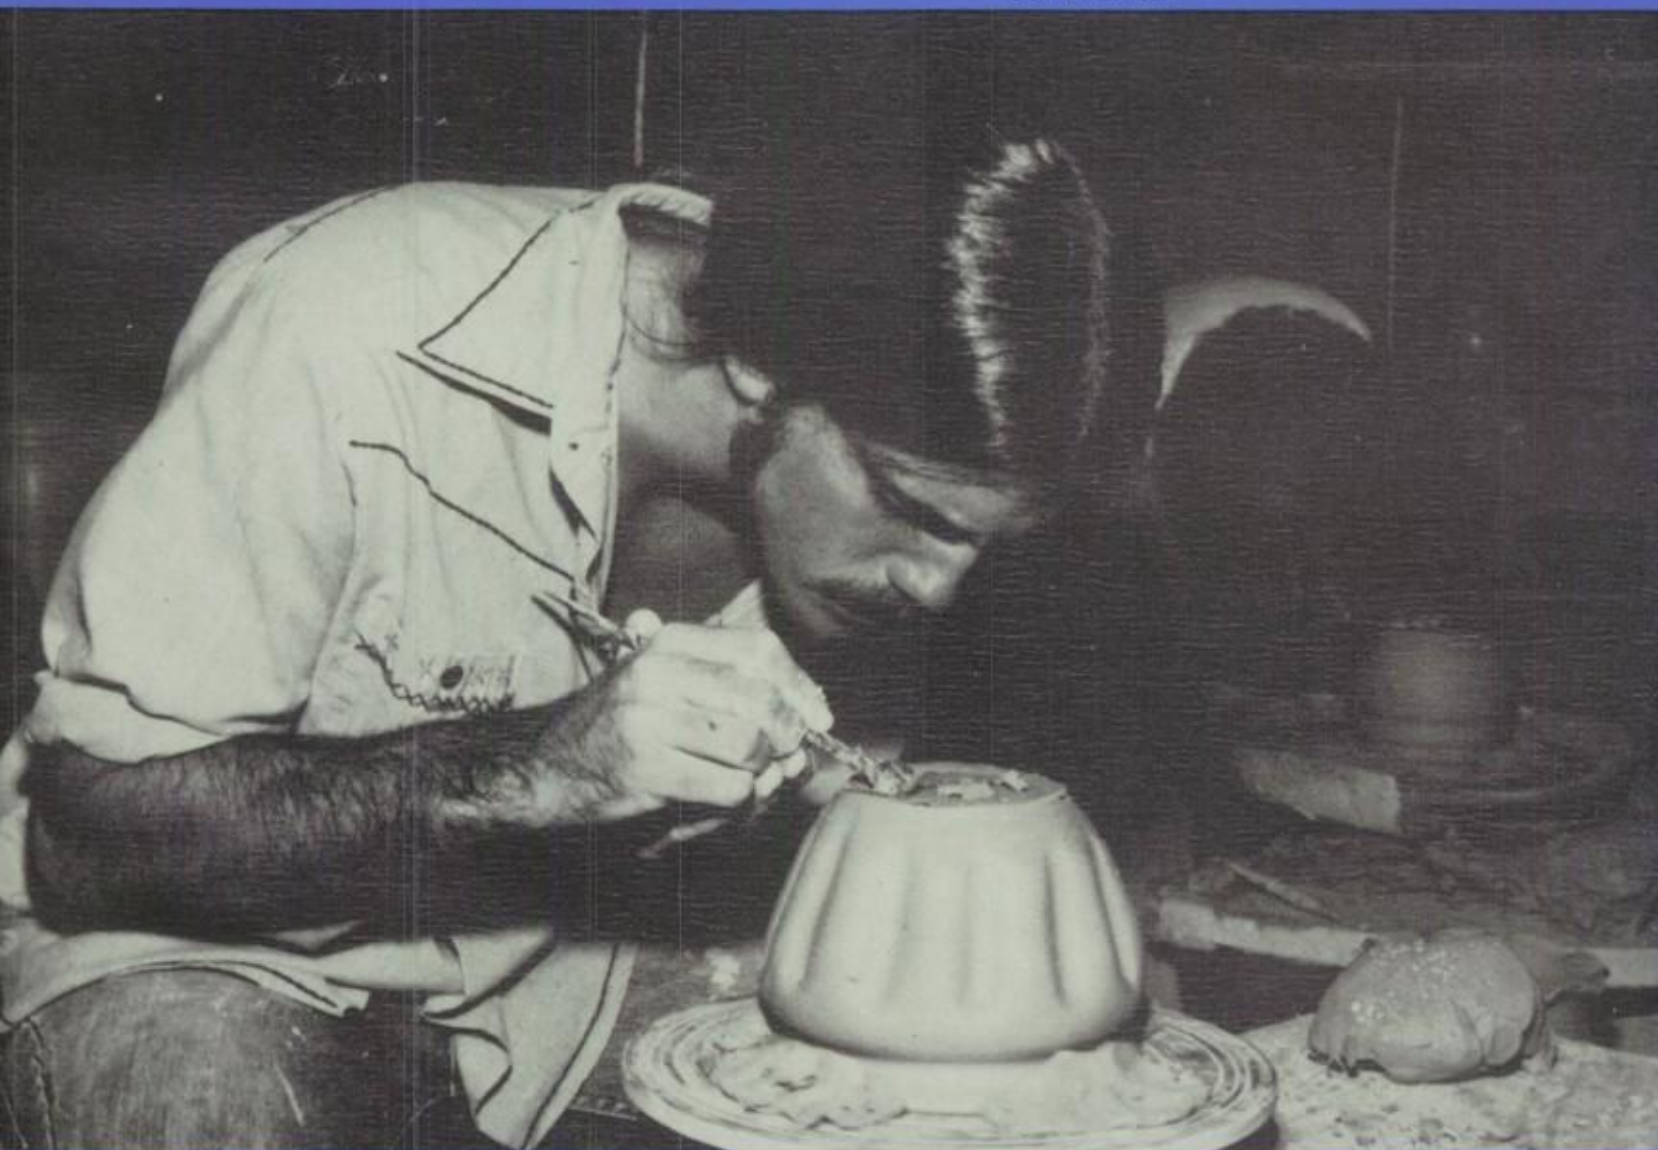

Kathy Vandervoort walks her dog, Incognito.

Reacting with ecstatic joy, Coach Bruich marvels at our Steeler Machine.

Debbie Stockwell's emotions take over as Fohi loses the CIF championships.

Larry Cook patiently trims one of his creations.

Often things happen we do not understand
Deeds that cannot be undone . . .
And to find an answer we search in our souls
It is here that the battle is won.
We are not dealing the cards in this game
We are not running the show . . .
The Master of Ceremonies beloved above us
Has planned our lives long ago.
And though God may often work in strange ways . . .
To get His meaning across
We must all learn from the ones we love
Through living, loving and loss.
Often things happen we do not understand
Deeds that cannot be undone . . .
And to find an answer we search in our souls
It is here that the battle is won.
